EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to eliminate the waiting list for human organs and eradicate the lucrative trade in organ trafficking. It will give a second life to terminally ill patients.

In this program, once a Filipino reaches the age of 18, he will be informed that he is automatically an organ donor in the event of untimely death unless he "opts out" or specifically refuse to donate his organs. This "opt out" or dissent solution has been practiced successfully for many years in Singapore, Spain, Israel, Sweden and Austria.

Sadly, our country does not have enough organs for transplant. Yearly, thousands of patients die while waiting for available organs. Traditionally, we have relied on living related volunteers. In the event that there is no match within the family, desperate patients have resorted to "buying" organs from poor, unrelated donors.

The overwhelming demand for organ donors has lead to abuse, manipulation and exploitation due to organ trafficking. Our country is known notoriously where organs can be had for only P30,000; and organ donors are often exploited by middlemen and foreigners. The World Health Organization has identified the Philippines as the 5th Organ Trafficking Hotspot, along with China, Pakistan, India and Colombia.

This is indeed a medical emergency. Every year, the prevalence of kidney diseases is increasing. 10,000 to 12,500 Filipinos nationwide develop end-stage renal disease (ESRD) annually. 50-60% of the patients are suitable kidney transplant candidates but only less than 10% are actually transplanted because of insufficient organ supply.

Everyone is a potential in the dissent or "opt out" approach. This new approach will require intensive education of donors, patients and Philippine society as a whole. However, it will ultimately prove to be the most practical, humane and charitable solution both for donors and patients. It will eliminate the cruel and heartless waiting list for organs, protect the poor from organ trafficking and will give a second life to those who are desperately ill.

In the light of the foregoing, the immediate passage of this urgent bill is earnestly sought.
