EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Child and Youth Welfare Code, Article 3 provides:

(7) Every child has the right to full opportunities for safe and wholesome recreation and activities;

(8) Every child has the right to protection against ... improper influences, hazards, and other conditions or circumstances prejudicial to his physical, mental, emotional, social and moral development;

xxx

The parents or guardian of a person of tender age have the responsibility to ensure his safety, until he reaches the age of majority.

Firearms are regulated by a system of monitoring and licensing. However, they have proliferated in homes and communities, making them easily accessible to a child. Considering that a child has no discernment, his safety depends entirely on the conduct of adults around him.

This bill penalizes the act of making firearms accessible to a child, in order to prevent a child from injuring himself or others with a firearm.
